This beautifully presented elevated ground floor apartment, set in the sought-after Jersey Farm development, offers a fantastic blend of space, comfort, and convenience. The well-proportioned layout features a bright and inviting lounge/dining room, a modern fitted kitchen, two generous double bedrooms, and a crisp white bathroom suite. Outside, residents can enjoy well-kept communal gardens, and the property also comes with a garage in a nearby block.

Perfectly positioned on the north-east side of St Albans, Jersey Farm is a vibrant community with a welcoming local parade of shops, a doctor's and dentist's surgery, and a friendly pub just moments away. For a wider choice of shopping, dining, and entertainment, the bustling city centre is only a short drive or bus ride, while the mainline station offers fast and direct links into central London — making this an ideal home for both city commuters and local life lovers.
