Outside, the property's allure continues with a sprawling garden that epitomises tranquillity and privacy. Surrounded by lush greenery and vibrant blooms, the outdoor space offers a sanctuary for both relaxation and entertainment. Enjoy alfresco dining on the expansive composite decking/ terrace, bask in the warm sunlight and fresh country air, or unwind beneath the retractable canopy with a good book and a glass of wine. The meticulously manicured lawn provides ample space for outdoor activities and play, while a potting shed and garden storage ensure practicality. Mature trees and shrubs lend an added sense of seclusion and serenity.

A large driveway offering generous parking completes the practicality of this exquisite property, ensuring that both style and convenience are seamlessly integrated into every aspect of its design. Whether you are savouring the sunset from the comfort of your outdoor seating area or embarking on a leisurely stroll through the surrounding countryside, this exceptional bungalow in Woodbridge, Suffolk, offers an unparalleled opportunity to embrace the beauty of nature and the luxury of rural living.

Woodbridge, Suffolk is a charming and historic riverside market town that consistently ranks among the best places to live in the UK. In fact, The Sunday Times named Woodbridge one of the Best Places to Live in the UK in 2021, praising its strong sense of community, excellent schools, and vibrant town centre. Nestled on the banks of the River Deben, the town offers an enviable blend of natural beauty, cultural heritage, and modern convenience. The town itself boasts an array of independent shops, cafes, restaurants, and traditional pubs, alongside essential amenities like supermarkets, medical centres, and sports facilities. Woodbridge also offers direct rail links to Ipswich and London Liverpool Street, making it ideal for commuters, while nature lovers can enjoy the nearby Suffolk Coast & Heaths Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty.
