A grade 2 listed, mixed use property offering great investment potential. Equally it presents an opportunity for an owner occupier. It comprises a ground floor commercial premises presently run as a ladies fashion shop. The commercial element could also be used for a variety of purposes. Via a separate access, the first floor forms a spacious two bedroom apartment full of character and period features. The flat is available with vacant possession.

The roof void is of sufficient pitch and size to offer significant scope to add third and fourth bedrooms with panoramic views to the rear of Sudeley Hill and thereby adding significant value. Once complete, opportunity to let it into the very popular, local holiday let sector.

Location

The Premises is located on the Cotswold Way within Winchcombe Town Centre in the busy retailing area of Hailes Street. Walking distance from popular tourist attractions such as Sudeley Castle and the GWR railway. The property benefits from a highly visible profile to passing pedestrian and vehicular traffic. Other occupiers on the street include a number of high-quality independent boutiques, retailers and professional services. National banking and pharmacy firms are also nearby. All of which drive footfall.

Winchcombe is a Saxon market town 7 miles north-east of Cheltenham and 8 miles from Broadway. It is popular with professionals and families alike. Additionally, it is a desirable tourist destination in its own right, for people visiting the Cotswold Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. The town offers an excellent range of independent shops, supermarkets, pubs, restaurants, a medical centre, library and an 'Outstanding' primary school and a secondary school.
