Features

- WITH NO FORWARD CHAIN
- Situated on a generous corner plot
- With garage and scope to extend
- A three bed roomed semi detached
- Gas central heating and PVCu double glazing

A superb chance to acquire a family home with future potential. With the advantage of no ongoing chain, this is a semi-detached house which is well situated on an excellent corner plot. With a generous side garden the house offers great potential to extend subject to the usual planning consent. There is a garage and secure parking to the rear with access from Redesmere Close. Internally the property has been meticulously well cared for and offers gas central heating and PVCu double glazing. In summary the accommodation comprises enclosed porch, entrance hall, spacious lounge/diner and a breakfast kitchen with integrated oven and hob. To the first floor there three excellent sized bedrooms and a bathroom with separate shower.

The property stands on the fringe of what is a very popular and well established development with a pleasant open front aspect. Notably within a short walk of Leftwich County High School rated outstanding and just a 10 minute walk will lead to Sir John Deane's College also rated outstanding. Also in just a 10 minute walk is access to miles of delightful riverside walks and countryside. Northwich town centre is one mile away and offers a great range of shops and national chain stores, Waitrose supermarket next to an attractive marina, bars/restaurants, multiplex cinema and memorial court with swimming pool and gym. Around half a mile away is access to the A556 bypass which connects to the motorway network and several major commercial centres.
