This well presented property offers flexible and characterful accommodation, the majority of which is on the ground floor with numerous doors connecting the house to the gardens. There is a spacious kitchen dining room with vaulted ceiling, exposed beams and 4 oven electric AGA; a raised snug has space for a sofa making this an extremely sociable area to cook, dine and relax. At this end of the house is a double bedroom and utility room with access to the store room. The sitting room has a wood burning stove and full width window with sliding doors to the decked courtyard enclosed by a stone wall. There are an additional two bedrooms on this floor, an office and shower room.

The generous principal bedroom with en-suite shower room is on the first floor and enjoys glorious countryside views as well as views across the grounds from the Juliet balcony.

Beautifully landscaped gardens are enclosed and private with glorious views across the adjoining open countryside. There are paved and decked sun terraces with raised planters, a hot tub sits under a pergola and the lawn opens onto the level paddock. The gated driveway provides parking for a number of vehicles and there is a useful store room.

If you are looking to be close to the sea but not remote with amenities on your doorstep, The Shippen offers everything you could wish for.

SERVICES

Mains water and electricity. Gas central heating. Private drainage.

DIRECTIONS

From the Quay in Kingsbridge take the A381 to Salcombe. Continue through the village of West Alvington and having passed Vicarage Lane on the left, The Shippen is the next property on the right.
