Houlton Info

In September 2022, the National Observer newspaper gave coverage to Houlton in a piece entitled "Houlton Rugby: a new town that’s sending out all the right signals" by Rowan Moore. The article praised the development as offering 'thoughtful planning, nature on the doorstep – and a secondary school with shades of Tate Modern’s Turbine Hall', and went on to praise the development as offering 'as serious a contribution', to the national housing crisis 'in both quality and quantity, as any organisation in the private sector has been able to think up. David Lloyd Clubs indoor and outdoor pools and fully equipped Spa which features a Himalayan salt sauna, citrus steam room, Finnish sauna, fire and ice room, and a plunge pool.

Fitness lovers explored the large open-plan gym and boutique group class studios which have been exclusively designed to host hundreds of group classes each week including the

David Lloyd Clubs exclusive Signature Class collection such as the HIIT Blaze and IGN1TE, pilates-based SPIRIT and cycling classes Cyclone and Rhythm. The extensive racquet options include an outdoor tennis bubble with the highest quality surface technology plus outdoor covered Padel courts: Europe's fastest growing sport. “At David Lloyd Clubs, we’re much more than just a gym. We’re a destination - a place for friends and family to come together with other like-minded members to elevate their every day, through socialising, fun, fitness, and sports.”
