About Rugby

Rugby is a market town in Warwickshire, England, on the River Avon. The town has a population of 70,628 (2011 census[1]) making it the second largest town in the county. The enclosing Borough of Rugby has a population of 100,500 (2011 census). Rugby is 13 miles (21 km) east of Coventry, on the eastern edge of Warwickshire, near the borders with Northamptonshire and Leicestershire. The town is credited with being the birthplace of rugby football.

LOCATION Cawston is a highly sought-after residential area, particularly popular among families and commuters due to its excellent connectivity and well-established community infrastructure. The area offers easy access to major transport links, including convenient road networks and a regular local bus service, making it an ideal base for those needing to commute to nearby towns and cities.

At the heart of Cawston, residents enjoy a wide array of local amenities including shops, cafes, and essential services, all contributing to a vibrant and self-sufficient community. The area is also known for its abundance of green open spaces, providing ample opportunity for outdoor recreation, dog walking, and family activities. Several well-maintained children's play parks are dotted throughout the neighbourhood, enhancing its appeal for young families.

The nearby village of Bilton, within comfortable walking distance, offers an even broader selection of amenities including shops, restaurants, and additional leisure facilities.

Educational provision in Cawston is excellent, with Cawston Grange Primary School serving the immediate area. Further primary education options include Bilton Junior School and Henry Hinde Infant and Junior Schools, all within walking distance. For secondary and independent schooling, the wider Rugby area offers an impressive selection of both state and private institutions. These include the highly regarded Rugby High School for Girls, Lawrence Sheriff School, Bilton Grange Preparatory School, Princethorpe College, and the prestigious Rugby School-one of the most renowned independent schools in the UK.
