Outside

The property forms part of The Ridings and situates close to Churchtown Village. This particular block is rarely for sale and forms just one of four exclusive apartments, very different to the main development itself with the added bonus of access to their own communal garden located to the front adjoining Malle Crescent. The development itself stands in further established and well-maintained grounds including residents parking. The property itself also benefits side door access with the vendor maintaining their own independence and having the choice of using either the communal entrance or their own entrance through the dining kitchen.
