Wolvercote's unique location lying on the edge of Port Meadow gives it the benefit of having a distinctly rural feel and yet being only minutes drive of Summertown. The village itself has a thriving community and still retains amenities including several public houses, a post office and store, primary school and village hall. Summertown offers a wide range of shops and services with Oxford City just 2 miles away. Recreational facilities can be found at Nuffield Leisure, North Oxford Golf Club and North Oxford Tennis Club.
