UNDER OFFER THROUGH OUR DISCREET MARKETING CAMPAIGN. Available for the first time in over 30 years this fantastic detached four bedroom family home is tucked away in a desirable road within reach of Berkhamsted High Street and mainline station. The property offers great potential to extend and modernise (subject to necessary planning consents).

The property gives an overall impression of light and space from the moment you enter. The main hallway leads to all principal rooms to the ground floor. The sitting room is double aspect with large bay window to the front and French doors to the facing garden and also has a feature fireplace. The kitchen/dining room is very functional and offers the ideal space in which to entertain with doors leading out to the conservatory. Upstairs the feeling of space continues. The master bedroom is a generous size with fitted wardrobes and ensuite with bath.
