Description

James Perry are delighted to bring to the market this modern three bed terraced property in the popular area of Minster on Sea, situated within walking distance to local amenities and a primary school directly opposite. This beautiful family home is the perfect location tucked out the way with a generous amount of secure frontage and space.

Upon entrance to the property you will find to your right the downstairs spacious WC with toilet and wash basin, to the left is the entrance into the properties open plan lounge and dining area which is both bright and spacious and offers an abundance of potential, the living room also benefits from a large bay window to let in plenty of light. Through the dining area to your right you will find the kitchen, fitted with white units and finished to a very modern standard and then the patio doors leading into the garden with decking and a gate leading to allocated parking.

On the second floor you will find the large double master bedroom which benefits from an ensuite, fitted with a shower, toilet and wash basin. The further two good size bedrooms and the family bathroom will also be found on this floor, which are also finished to that modern standard so all you will need to do is pack up and move in!

Call today to arrange a viewing for this property!! Not one to be missed.
