Guide price £700,000

Virtual Tour Available

A unique detached family home nestled at the foot of a characterful and quiet cul de sac, in the heart of the charming village of Ashtead, with scope to extend and improve (stpp).

The current layout includes an entrance hallway, a great size living room, a well proportioned kitchen/breakfast room with access onto the garden, a handy separate utility room, modern fitted downstairs shower room and rear door to the garage.

Upstairs there are three bedrooms, a bathroom with natural light, a separate toilet and access to the loft space where there is additional storage.

The rear garden is nicely secluded, mainly laid to lawn with a raised patio area, space for a shed and wide side access to the front of the property, where there is must have driveway and garage.

Gladstone Road is nicely tucked away to enjoy quiet enjoyment, however, is only a short distance from the mainline station, sought after local schools, shops found on the village street, Craddocks Parade and Barnett Wood Lane, access to Junction 9 of the M25 and some beautifully well kept parks, commons and woodlands.

Offered with vacant possession and probate granted.
