Guide price £450,000

NO ONWARD CHAIN.

A semi-detached period cottage nestled in a quiet residential backwater, located in the popular town of Leatherhead, Surrey.

Requiring some modernisation throughout, the current ground floor layout includes an entrance lobby, a light bright living room with angled bay window, a good size formal dining room with under stair storage and a fitted kitchen with rear access to the garden. There is huge potential to open up and slightly extend the back section of the house, if your preference is for an open plan kitchen/dining room.

Upstairs there is a good size landing with access to the loft space, two double bedrooms both with fitted cupboards and a bathroom with lots of natural light.

Outside there is a mature and secluded garden, with side access to the detached garage which has off street parking to the front.

Magazine Place is superbly located, within comfortable reach of the town centre, the mainline station, junction 9 of the M25 and several of our most highly sought after schools. If outdoor pursuits are on you must have you are spoilt for choice, with the banks of the River Mole being at the bottom of the town, as well as the glorious walks on hand at Norbury Park, Box Hill, Headley Heath, the world famous Epsom Downs and so so many more.
