Mapps Estates are delighted to bring to the market this charming detached cottage set in beautiful gardens in a semi-rural location, yet within a short drive of Ashford for high speed access to central London. This well-appointed home is finished to a high quality throughout while losing none of its period character. The well proportioned accommodation is surprisingly spacious, comprising a front porch and reception hall, a sitting room with an open fire, a dining room with a cast iron log burner, a country kitchen with a stable door, and a large modern conservatory to the ground floor, while upstairs you will find the two double bedrooms and spacious bathroom with both a corner bath and a separate shower cubicle. An outbuilding to the rear offers a utility room and WC. The generous rear garden complements the property beautifully and backs onto open fields to the rear. With a gravelled driveway completing this delightful home, an early viewing comes highly recommended.

Located in the popular semi-rural village of Sellindge, which offers a Post Office and Co-Op mini supermarket, coffee shop, active village hall, doctor's surgery, primary school and Sellindge Sports and Social Club. Secondary Schooling is available in nearby Saltwood with boys' and girls' grammar schools in Folkestone. The M20 Motorway, Channel Tunnel Terminal and Port of Dover are all easily accessed by car. High-speed rail services are available from Ashford International station approximately 15 minutes by car giving service to London, St Pancras in approximately 38 minutes. Alternatively, Westenhanger Railway station is just a short drive away. The pretty Cinque Port town of Hythe is approximately 15 minutes away by car and offers a good selection of independent shops together with Waitrose, Aldi and Sainsbury's stores. The town also boasts the historic Royal Military Canal running through it and enjoys an unspoilt seafront promenade.
