Denise White Estate Agent Comments

Immaculate and totally refurbished, this stunning detached bungalow offers bright and light accommodation that is perfect for families, couples, retired buyers, and those downsizing accommodation. With three bedrooms, including a double en-suite bedroom overlooking the rear garden, this property provides ample space for everyone. The open-plan kitchen is a standout feature, with an extensive range of wall and base units with work surfaces over, modern appliances, a dining area, a breakfast bar, and access to the rear garden. The kitchen also boasts concealed lighting and inset spotlighting, creating a warm and inviting atmosphere.

The rest of the bungalow's accommodation flows with an entrance hall that provides access to the living accommodation and steps leading down into the double garage and utility room. To the left of the entrance features a well proportioned separate reception room with large windows and good views to the front, providing a delightful space for relaxation and entertaining. The family bathroom is newly refurbished with a three piece bathroom suite having a rain shower over the bath alongside a shower attachment and a heated towel rail, adding a touch of luxury to everyday living. There is also a useful separate cloakroom for added convenience.

The bungalow is approached over a private driveway leading to the front of the property with parking and turning space in front of the double garage.

Externally, this property offers an excellent size plot, with the potential to extend to the rear, subject to any planning consents needed. The double garage provides additional storage space which is currently used as utility space. The garage could be utilised for many purposes including annexe accommodation for an elderly relative or dependent teenager, again subject to any necessary planning consents. The gardens to the rear are an excellent size, which have been recently landscaped and offers a high degree of privacy. Benefits from a patio seating area and lawns bordered by well-established hedging, mature flowerbeds and trees. An ideal place to potter and perfect for people with a love of gardening.

Situated in the most desirable location, this bungalow offers convenient access to nearby schools, local amenities, green spaces, and parks with Brough Park within a short walking distance away. It also boasts the additional advantage of not being overlooked, ensuring privacy for its residents.

Don't miss out on the opportunity to own this exceptional property with its unique features, including its recently renovated accommodation, the double garage, landscaped gardens and excellent size plot. Contact us now to arrange a viewing and witness the great space and versatile accommodation this remarkable home offers.

Location

Situated on the outskirts of Leek, within easy reach of the market town, yet also close to some stunning countryside.

Leek is known as the 'Queen of the Staffordshire Moorlands', Leek is a former textile town with a long and fascinating history.

The unspoilt town centre offers a refreshing alternative to from modern shopping malls and has a wealth of independent shops, including former silk mills housing antique and reproduction pine centres, as well as traditional and contemporary furnishings.

Delicious local produce can be found in abundance at traditional butchers, bakers, greengrocers, delicatessens and cafes. Leek is also home to speciality producers of condiments, confectionery, preserves, wine, whisky, craft beers and the traditional Staffordshire oatcake.

Traditional markets abound, both indoors in the beautifully restored Victorian Butter Market and outdoors in the Market Place, offering everything from general goods, antiques and collectables to fine foods and special 'Totally Locally' Sunday markets. And when it comes to wining and dining, you can choose from a tempting selection of cafés, real ale pubs and restaurants.

Further afield, you'll find the unique, tooth-like rock formations of The Roaches, Rudyard Lake with its picturesque setting and narrow gauge railway and Tittesworth Water, a popular and accessible attraction for visitors of all ages

The location offers excellent access to the Peak District National Park, an area of outstanding natural beauty famed for its walking, cycling and wildlife watching. Steep limestone valleys like Dovedale, with its stepping stones, and Lathkill Dale, draw visitors from around the world.

The nearest train stations to Leek are Stoke-on-Trent (12 miles), Macclesfield (13 miles) and Buxton (13 miles), providing direct services to Manchester, Sheffield and London in around 95 minutes.
