"A light-filled, substantial family home standing in a sizeable plot, located in a small village within the Staffordshire Moorlands. Its airy, light-filled extension has transformed the house, doubling the footprint, with flexibility a hallmark of the house's design. This house offers so many opportunities from the versatile, expansive, family accommodation to generating an income from Airbnb....."

Denise White's Comments

We are delighted to present this substantial and stunning detached country residence to the market. Situated in a serene location within a charming village in the Staffordshire Moorlands. This exceptional property boasts a generously sized plot of meticulously maintained gardens, believed to be around an acre, and surrounded by breathtaking green spaces. With easy access to the nearby market towns of Cheadle, Leek, and Ashbourne, this home offers a peaceful and tranquil environment while still providing convenient amenities.

Recently renovated to the highest standards, this property offers a captivating view and showcases an incredibly spacious and adaptable layout, making it perfect for a large family. It also offers the potential for accommodating an elderly relative or for use as a bed and breakfast or Airbnb accommodation. With six generously proportioned double bedrooms, including one on the ground floor with an en-suite shower room and French doors opening onto the garden, there is ample space for everyone. The main bedroom features an en-suite bathroom, while two additional bedrooms offer their own en-suite facilities. Bedroom five even includes an additional built-in bed, perfect for grandchild sleepovers!

The open-plan kitchen is a true entertainer's dream, featuring modern appliances, an abundance of natural light, and a designated dining area. Recently refurbished, the kitchen also includes a utility room and cloakroom for added convenience.

Bi-fold doors seamlessly connect the indoor and outdoor spaces, allowing for effortless access to the stunning gardens.

This property boasts three/four reception rooms, each with its own unique features. The open-plan reception room, which connects to the kitchen and dining space, showcases an inviting fireplace. The separate snug room provides a cosy retreat, while the third reception room offers versatility and functionality, providing access to the first floor, bedroom six, and an office.

The property is accessed via a spacious driveway, providing ample off-road parking and leading to the double garage. The expansive gardens to the rear also house various outbuildings, perfect for potting sheds, a carport, and storage for gardening equipment. A large outbuilding, currently used as a games/entertainment room, adds to the versatility and enjoyment of the property.

In conclusion, this exceptional detached country residence offers an incredible opportunity for families in search of a spacious and adaptable home. The combination of its idyllic location, expansive gardens, unique features, and impeccable condition make it a highly desirable property. We highly recommend scheduling a viewing to fully appreciate all that this extraordinary home has to offer.

Location

Featured in the Daily Telegraph in October 2022 as Britain's 20 Golden Villages.

Kingsley is a picturesque village just to the south-west of the Peak District National Park. It's near the Caldon canal, and the Churnet Valley steam train pulls into Kingsley and Froghall station. Large employment hubs are easily accessible too, given it's a 20-minute drive to Stoke-on-Trent and a 50-minute drive or train journey to Derby, while the train from Stoke-on-Trent runs into Manchester in about 40 minutes. The area is dotted with boutique hotels such as the Tawny, a retreat with treehouses. "Kingsley also benefits from its proximity to Cheadle and Ashbourne,” says Mitchell Glassey of Knight Frank. “Transport links are plentiful – the train from Stoke-on-Trent also gets you to London Euston in less than an hour and 40 minutes. It’s an ideal spot for a wide range of buyers.”
