Denise White's Comments

Every now and then, a truly extraordinary opportunity arises in life. Willowvale Farm is one such opportunity, situated on a plot of land that extends to over 13 acres, this semi-rural paradise boasts a range of versatile outbuildings and an abundance of natural beauty.

Nestled within this idyllic setting is this three/four bedroom detached bungalow, offering a comfortable and spacious living accommodation. Meticulously maintained by the present owners, the bungalow features a modern kitchen diner where you can gather with loved ones, as well as a bright and airy lounge/sitting room at the front of the property. There are three/four bedrooms, one which is currently used as a cosy snug room, and a well-appointed bathroom complete with a bath and shower cubicle. Additionally, a generous conservatory is at the rear, providing great additional accommodation space and a place to take in the picturesque surroundings.

Surrounded by mature gardens, the bungalow is just the beginning of what Willowvale Farm has to offer. The property boasts extensive farmland and woodland areas, totalling, in excess of, an impressive 13 acres of outdoor space. The outbuildings on the property present limitless opportunities for the new owners. With the necessary planning consents, these versatile structures could be transformed into additional dwellings, providing ancillary accommodation for your family or even a thriving holiday rental business. Furthermore, the vast land offers ample space for livestock, allowing you to embrace The Good Life, and there is even room for your own allotment alongside the existing orchard.

The views from Willowvale Farm are nothing short of breath-taking, stretching across the Staffordshire Moorlands and showcasing the beauty of the surrounding countryside.
