Denise White's Comments

This stunning four-bedroom detached family home has been meticulously extended and reconfigured by the current owners, creating a truly splendid living space. Situated in a private, non-estate location backing onto open countryside, the property is conveniently located within walking distance of Congleton town centre, offering easy access to amenities, local schools, and major road networks. It perfectly combines the charm of the Cheshire countryside with the convenience of nearby retail options.

Retaining the beautiful features associated with its 1930s origins, this well-appointed residence boasts higher than average ceilings and deep bay windows that add character and elegance to the home.

Upon entering the property through the porch, you are welcomed into the entrance hall featuring original oak parquet flooring. The spacious lounge area with a focal fireplace and a bay window to the front creates a cosy and inviting atmosphere. An open archway leads to the dining/living/kitchen area, offering a seamless flow between the spaces. This open design concept caters to modern living while still maintaining distinct areas. The dining and living area is bathed in natural light, thanks to the vaulted ceiling in the living area, skylights, bifold doors leading to the rear garden, and additional windows overlooking the garden. This versatile space can be easily adapted to suit the needs and preferences of any buyer. Separated by a breakfast bar, the kitchen is fitted with bespoke oak wall, base, and pantry units, granite work surfaces, and a range of integrated appliances. Access to the snug room can be gained directly from the kitchen and the entrance hall, enhancing the flow of the home. A convenient utility room and a ground floor cloakroom complete the ground floor accommodation.

Upstairs, the first-floor landing leads to a generously sized family bathroom and four well-proportioned bedrooms, with the main bedroom benefiting from an ensuite shower room. The front elevation offers extensive views towards Mow Cop and 'The Cloud', adding to the overall appeal of the property.

Externally, this property boasts ample outdoor space. An extensive tarmac parking area provides plenty of parking for multiple vehicles, including a caravan or motor home. Additionally, there is a separate driveway leading to a detached garage. Both the front and rear gardens offer a private setting, with no direct overlooking from neighbouring properties. The gardens are beautifully landscaped with lawns, flower shrub borders, mature trees, and hedging. A delightful patio seating area at the rear, accessed via the living area's bifold doors, allows for seamless indoor-outdoor living during the warmer months.

In summary, this exceptional family home seamlessly combines traditional charm with modern living. Its extended and reconfigured layout provides ample space for comfortable family living, while the private setting and convenient location make it an ideal choice for those seeking both tranquillity and accessibility.

Location

Congleton is a charming market town located in Cheshire, England. Situated on the banks of the River Dane, it is conveniently located 21 miles south of Manchester and 13 miles north of Stoke on Trent.

Surrounded by the stunning countryside of the Pennines, Congleton offers a picturesque setting for residents and visitors alike.

One of the highlights of the town is Congleton Park, spanning 25 acres and featuring beautiful floral displays, well-maintained lawns, a paddling pool, and a large play area for children. The park also includes a bowling green and a pavilion, and hosts various public events throughout the year, including a carnival, a teddy bears' picnic, and a fireworks display. Additionally, during the warmer months, boaters can enjoy passing through Congleton on the scenic Macclesfield Canal.

Transportation in Congleton is convenient, with regular bus services connecting the town to surrounding areas such as Nantwich, Sandbach, Macclesfield, Biddulph, Kidsgrove, and Crewe. The Congleton railway station provides regular train services to Manchester City Centre and Stoke-on-Trent. For those traveling by air, Manchester International Airport is less than 15 miles away, and there are easy access roads to the M6 motorway from Congleton.

When it comes to shopping, residents have a variety of options to choose from. There are popular high street fashion stores, computer game outlets, shoe shops, and electrical goods stores, as well as a range of independent shops offering unique items, including French furniture and African art. Capitol Walk's charming undercover arcade is home to several boutiques, and a covered market takes place in Congleton twice a week, offering a wide selection of goods.

Congleton also boasts a diverse dining and drinking scene. From cosy pubs to lively bars, there is something to suit every taste.

For those who enjoy an active lifestyle, Congleton offers plenty of leisure facilities. The town has its own leisure centre, as well as several gyms for fitness enthusiasts. Golfers can enjoy playing at Astbury and Mossley Golf Clubs, while Astbury Mere Country Park is the perfect destination for water sports enthusiasts, offering instructed sessions in sailing, canoeing, kayaking, windsurfing, and raft building. Other activities in the area include shooting at Cloudside Shooting Club and horse riding at Somerford Equestrian Centre.
