Denise White Estate Agent Comments

This unique property, constructed in 2008, provides a perfect blend of comfort and convenience. Situated as the only detached residence on the street, it offers a rare opportunity to enjoy the benefits of off-road parking, a feature that is hard to find in such close proximity to the town centre. Moreover, the interior of the property has recently undergone renovations, ensuring a modern and inviting living space.

Upon entering, you will be greeted by generously proportioned rooms that provide ample living space. The ground floor boasts a contemporary fitted kitchen, equipped with all the modern amenities. Adjacent to the kitchen, you will find a spacious lounge, perfect for relaxation.

Moving to the first floor, you will discover two well-appointed bedrooms served with a stylish and contemporary shower room.

One of the highlights of this property is the private rear garden and patio area, a convenient shed is also available, providing additional storage space for your belongings.

In summary, this property stands out from the rest with its detached status and the added benefit of off-road parking. The modern interior, spacious rooms, and private rear garden make this home a rare find. Don't miss the opportunity to experience comfort and convenience in this property.

Location

Leek is known as the 'Queen of the Staffordshire Moorlands', Leek is a former textile town with a long and fascinating history.

The unspoilt town centre offers a refreshing alternative to from modern shopping malls and has a wealth of independent shops, including former silk mills housing antique and reproduction pine centres, as well as traditional and contemporary furnishings.

Delicious local produce can be found in abundance at traditional butchers, bakers, greengrocers, delicatessens and cafes. Leek is also home to speciality producers of condiments, confectionery, preserves, wine, whisky, craft beers and the traditional Staffordshire oatcake.

Traditional markets abound, both indoors in the beautifully restored Victorian Butter Market and outdoors in the Market Place, offering everything from general goods, antiques and collectables to fine foods and special 'Totally Locally' Sunday markets. And when it comes to wining and dining, you can choose from a tempting selection of cafés, real ale pubs and restaurants.

Further afield, you'll find the unique, tooth-like rock formations of The Roaches, Rudyard Lake with its picturesque setting and narrow gauge railway and Tittesworth Water, a popular and accessible attraction for visitors of all ages
