Denise White Estate Agent's Comments

Welcome to this charming and meticulously maintained detached cottage, offering spacious living and a warm, inviting atmosphere. As you step into the cottage you'll feel the welcoming ambiance that flows throughout this beautiful home.

The cottage's accommodation briefly comprises; a lounge, dining room, kitchen, ground floor bathroom, three double bedrooms, and a first-floor WC.

Nestled in a picturesque and elevated position, it provides stunning views of the surrounding open countryside and beyond. Located in the heart of the Peak District, between Leek and Buxton, it offers easy access to the famous Roaches and its breathtaking walks and outdoor activities. Whether you're a family, a professional, or looking for a second home or holiday cottage, this property is ideally suited to meet your needs.

With a history dating back centuries, this cottage has been lovingly restored by its owners, who have breathed new life into its original charm and character. The kitchen has been thoughtfully renovated, combining expert craftsmanship, functionality, and traditional design to create a stunning space. Natural light floods the kitchen through its vaulted ceiling and skylights. Adjacent to the kitchen, you'll find a generously sized dining room, offering versatility and the opportunity to tailor the space to your own preferences.

The living room serves as the heart of the home, providing a cosy and comfortable retreat. With a log-burning fire and French doors leading to the front garden, this rustic space offers a unique and inviting atmosphere, perfect for relaxation.

The ground floor bathroom features a modern suite, complete with a bath with a shower over, a WC, and a pedestal wash hand basin.

Upstairs, you'll discover three spacious double bedrooms, providing ample room for rest and relaxation. Additionally, there is a convenient WC on the first floor.

Externally, the frontage of the property features a charming flagged patio area, enclosed by a walled and hedged boundary. On the side, there is a carport equipped with an EV charger, ensuring convenience for electric vehicle owners. The yard on the opposite side of the property includes a stone outhouse and a workshop, offering ample storage space. It also has the capacity to accommodate multiple vehicles, as it was formerly used as a small haulage yard.
