Denise White Agents Comments

Situated on one of the most desirable streets in the town centre of Leek, this beautifully restored mid-terrace property exudes character and charm.

Upon entering, you are greeted by a spacious living room adorned with stunning beams and a feature fireplace, creating an inviting atmosphere perfect for relaxation. Adjacent to the living area, a cosy snug provides a warm ambiance, ideal for unwinding after a long day. At the rear, a farm-style kitchen, complete with panelled walls, offers immediate access to a shared yard, enhancing the practicality of daily living. The dining room, thoughtfully separated from the kitchen by a partition wall, ensures a seamless flow between cooking and entertaining, making it perfect for hosting family and friends.

The first floor features two generously sized double bedrooms, each neutrally decorated and offering picturesque views of the period properties across the street. A stylish and contemporary shower room serves both bedrooms, ensuring convenience. At the back of the property, a well-proportioned sitting room showcases stunning panelling and connects to a rear porch leading to a large private courtyard—an idyllic spot to enjoy a quiet drink or gather with loved ones. Additionally, a well-appointed bathroom is accessible from the rear porch, enhancing the functionality of this charming home.

On the second floor, two further bedrooms await. The largest, located at the front of the property, boasts two windows that flood the space with natural light. Built-in wardrobes and a feature fireplace enhance the room's functionality while maintaining its cosy atmosphere.

Having undergone extensive restoration and freshly painted throughout in tasteful Farrow and Ball colours, this property offers a harmonious blend of contemporary style and historic charm. With its prime location and inviting interiors, this mid-terrace home is a true gem in the heart of Leek.

Location

Located on an extremely sought after street in the centre of the town.

Known as the 'Queen of the Staffordshire Moorlands', Leek is a former textile town with a long and fascinating history.

The unspoiled town centre offers a refreshing alternative to from modern shopping malls and has a wealth of independent shops, including former silk mills housing antique and reproduction pine centres, as well as traditional and contemporary furnishings.

Delicious local produce can be found in abundance at traditional butchers, bakers, greengrocers, delicatessens and cafes. Leek is also home to specialty producers of condiments, confectionery, preserves, wine, whisky, craft beers and the traditional Staffordshire oatcake.

Traditional markets abound, both indoors in the beautifully restored Victorian Butter Market and outdoors in the Market Place, offering everything from general goods, antiques and collectibles to fine foods and special 'Totally Locally' Sunday markets. And when it comes to wining and dining, you can choose from a tempting selection of cafés, real ale pubs and restaurants.

Further afield, you'll find the unique, tooth-like rock formations of The Roaches, Rudyard Lake with its picturesque setting and narrow gauge railway and Tittesworth Water, a popular and accessible attraction for visitors of all ages
