Denise White Estate Agents's Comments

Welcome to your future family home! This well maintained three-bedroom semi-detached home is nestled on an expansive plot with generous rear gardens, perfect for outdoor enjoyment. Located in a highly sought-after cul-de-sac, this property offers convenient access to local amenities, schools, and green spaces, making it an ideal choice for couples and families alike.

The entrance hall leads into a bright and inviting lounge featuring a bay window to the front aspect. The second reception room, positioned at the rear, has great garden views and skylights, creating a delightful year-round space perfect for relaxation, reading, or would be ideal serving as a playroom for children or grandchildren.

The open-plan kitchen offers ample dining space and the kitchen area has a range of wall and base units with work surfaces over and is equipped with integrated gas hob, electric cooker, microwave, dishwasher, and space for a fridge freezer. A convenient utility room and a ground floor shower room add to the functionality of this home.

Upstairs, you'll find three bedrooms, two of which are generous doubles. The main bedroom features built-in wardrobes and faces the front, while the second bedroom offers a peaceful view of the rear garden. The third bedroom is a cosy single, ideal for a study or nursery, and all rooms are well-served by a family first-floor bathroom.

Additionally there is a spacious garage and a driveway that accommodates two cars, along with expansive rear gardens that present opportunities for future expansion. This cherished family home offers a unique blend of comfort, convenience, and potential—making it a must-see for anyone searching for their next residence. Don't miss out on this gem!

Location

Located on the outskirts of the market town of Leek within a most popular residential area with similar style properties on a small cul-de-sac.

Leek is known as the 'Queen of the Staffordshire Moorlands', and is a former textile town with a long and fascinating history.

The unspoilt town centre offers a refreshing alternative to from modern shopping malls and has a wealth of independent shops, including former silk mills housing antique and reproduction pine centres, as well as traditional and contemporary furnishings.

Delicious local produce can be found in abundance at traditional butchers, bakers, greengrocers, delicatessens and cafes. Leek is also home to speciality producers of condiments, confectionery, preserves, wine, whisky, craft beers and the traditional Staffordshire oatcake.

Traditional markets abound, both indoors in the beautifully restored Victorian Butter Market and outdoors in the Market Place, offering everything from general goods, antiques and collectables to fine foods and special 'Totally Locally' Sunday markets. And when it comes to wining and dining, you can choose from a tempting selection of cafés, real ale pubs and restaurants.

Further afield, you'll find the unique, tooth-like rock formations of The Roaches, Rudyard Lake with its picturesque setting and narrow gauge railway and Tittesworth Water, a popular and accessible attraction for visitors of all ages.
