Nestled on a sought-after residential street, this beautifully presented four-bedroom detached home boasts an elevated position that offers delightful views at the front.

As you approach the property, you're greeted by a generous lawned area and a tarmac driveway which provides off-road parking for multiple vehicles, leading to an expansive integral garage.

Upon entering, a spacious and bright hallway welcomes you, setting the tone for the rest of the home. The modern kitchen features stylish shaker-style cabinets and ample cooking space, complemented by a built-in breakfast bar perfect for casual dining. The large, well-proportioned lounge is adorned with neutral tones, creating a cosy ambiance ideal for relaxation. A second reception room, with sliding doors that open onto a private balcony, offers a versatile space that can be used as a dining room or snug.

Three double bedrooms are located at the rear of the property, each enjoying a tranquil outlook over the picturesque rear garden. The largest bedroom features a separate dressing area, French doors that lead directly to the garden, and a modern ensuite bathroom for added convenience. A separate family bathroom serves the other two spacious bedrooms.

Stairs from the second reception room provide access to the lower ground floor, leading directly into the garage. Additionally, this level features a self-contained one-bedroom flat, ideal for accommodating a family member seeking independence while remaining close to home.

The sizeable rear garden is predominantly turfed, offering plenty of space for outdoor activities. A raised stone patio area provides the perfect spot for unwinding in the sunshine or enjoying al fresco dining. Steps lead through tiered borders filled with mature shrubs, enhancing the garden's charm and appeal.

This exceptional property combines modern living with ample space, making it perfect for families seeking comfort and style in a desirable location.

Location

Leek is known as the 'Queen of the Staffordshire Moorlands', Leek is a former textile town with a long and fascinating history.

The unspoilt town centre offers a refreshing alternative to from modern shopping malls and has a wealth of independent shops, including former silk mills housing antique and reproduction pine centres, as well as traditional and contemporary furnishings.

Delicious local produce can be found in abundance at traditional butchers, bakers, greengrocers, delicatessens and cafes. Leek is also home to speciality producers of condiments, confectionery, preserves, wine, whisky, craft beers and the traditional Staffordshire oatcake.

Traditional markets abound, both indoors in the beautifully restored Victorian Butter Market and outdoors in the Market Place, offering everything from general goods, antiques and collectables to fine foods and special 'Totally Locally' Sunday markets. And when it comes to wining and dining, you can choose from a tempting selection of cafés, real ale pubs and restaurants.

Further afield, you'll find the unique, tooth-like rock formations of The Roaches, Rudyard Lake with its picturesque setting and narrow gauge railway and Tittesworth Water, a popular and accessible attraction for visitors of all ages.

The location offers excellent access to the Peak District National Park, an area of outstanding natural beauty famed for its walking, cycling and wildlife watching. Steep limestone valleys like Dovedale, with its stepping stones, and Lathkill Dale, draw visitors from around the world.

The nearest train stations to Leek are Stoke-on-Trent (12 miles), Macclesfield (13 miles) and Buxton

(13 miles), providing direct services to Manchester, Sheffield and London in around 95 minutes.
