Denise White Estate Agents Comments

A spacious and well-maintained versatile home situated on an immaculate and substantial plot on a sought-after street within the heart of Cheddleton. Located a stone's throw from popular village pubs, Ashcombe cricket grounds, a village shop and the Cauldon canal providing lovely country walks.

The property itself provides spacious accommodation across one floor ideal for mature vendors who still require lots of space. There is a paved pathway leading to the front of the home. Upon entering, there is a large entrance hall with built in cloak room as well as a WC perfect for accommodating visitors. To the left is a neutrally decorated living room with a beautiful outlook to the front aspect. Sliding doors provide access to a private terrace which creates a perfect seating area to relax and enjoy the surrounding green scenery. An open arch way leads through to a separate dining room, perfect for more formal dining. To the rear of the home is a well appointed kitchen with integrated appliances, granite work surfaces and breakfast bar. This opens on to a large conservatory which is enhanced by the extensive plot behind. French doors provide direct access onto the rear patio perfect for indoor outdoor living in the summer months.

The sleeping quarters boast three double bedrooms, the largest of which is situated at the front of the home and features a range of built in wardrobes and an ensuite bathroom. There are two further double bedrooms located at the rear of the home and enjoying views of the rear garden. There is also a fourth room which would be utilised as a single bedroom or office space. A large bathroom is neutrally decorated and currently features a large walk in shower but could easily accommodate a bath.

Externally is where the property excels with a large wrap around plot. A low maintenance tarmac driveway provides ample off road parking and leads to a double garage. The rear and side gardens are largely lawned with well maintained borders.

Overall, this well-kept detached home situated on a tremendous corner plot provides a rare opportunity to acquire a large property which enjoys a range of local amenities and wide open spaces.

Location

Cheddleton is situated on the outskirts of Leek, within easy reach of the market town, yet also close to some stunning countryside.

Leek is known as the 'Queen of the Staffordshire Moorlands', Leek is a former textile town with a long and fascinating history.

The unspoilt town centre offers a refreshing alternative to from modern shopping malls and has a wealth of independent shops, including former silk mills housing antique and reproduction pine centres, as well as traditional and contemporary furnishings.

Delicious local produce can be found in abundance at traditional butchers, bakers, greengrocers, delicatessens and cafes. Leek is also home to speciality producers of condiments, confectionery, preserves, wine, whisky, craft beers and the traditional Staffordshire oatcake.

Traditional markets abound, both indoors in the beautifully restored Victorian Butter Market and outdoors in the Market Place, offering everything from general goods, antiques and collectables to fine foods and special 'Totally Locally' Sunday markets. And when it comes to wining and dining, you can choose from a tempting selection of cafés, real ale pubs and restaurants.

Further afield, you'll find the unique, tooth-like rock formations of The Roaches, Rudyard Lake with its picturesque setting and narrow gauge railway and Tittesworth Water, a popular and accessible attraction for visitors of all ages.

The location offers excellent access to the Peak District National Park, an area of outstanding natural beauty famed for its walking, cycling and wildlife watching. Steep limestone valleys like Dovedale, with its stepping stones, and Lathkill Dale, draw visitors from around the world.

The nearest train stations to Leek are Stoke-on-Trent (12 miles), Macclesfield (13 miles) and Buxton (13 miles), providing direct services to Manchester, Sheffield and London in around 95 minutes. Situated on the outskirts of Leek, within easy reach of the market town, yet also close to some stunning countryside.

Local Estate Agent Wins Prestigious British Gold Award for Customer Service

Denise White Bespoke Estate Agents has been honored with the esteemed Gold Award 2024 from the British Property Awards for their exceptional customer service and extensive local marketing knowledge in Leek and its surrounding areas.

The British Property Awards, renowned for their inclusivity and comprehensive evaluation process, assess estate agents across the United Kingdom based on their customer service levels and understanding of the local market. Denise White Estate Agents demonstrated outstanding performance throughout the rigorous and independent judging period.

As part of the assessment, the British Property Awards mystery shopped 90% of estate agents nationwide, evaluating their telephone etiquette, responsiveness to emails, promptness in returning missed calls, and, crucially, their expertise in the local marketing area.

The Gold Award is a testament to the estate agents who consistently go above and beyond, delivering exceptional levels of customer service, focusing on their commitment and excellence within the local community.

Anti-Money Laundering & ID Checks

Once an offer is accepted on a property marketed by Denise White Estate Agents we are required to complete ID verification checks on all buyers and to apply ongoing monitoring until the transaction ends. Whilst this is the responsibility of Denise White Estate Agents we may use the services of Guild365, to verify Clients' identity. This is not a credit check and therefore will have no effect on your credit history. You agree for us to complete these checks, and the cost of these checks is £30.00 inc. VAT per buyer. This is paid in advance, when an offer is agreed and prior to a sales memorandum being issued. This charge is non-refundable.
