Denise White's Comments

The property is steeped in history/tradition and is a fine example of a residence of this era. Standing very handsome and proud, it offers the most generous of elegant living spaces both inside and out. It's ideal family size gardens will leave you besotted, itching to get the children playing and entertaining family and friends. Extensively renovated with an immense amount of love and attention to detail to provide a remarkable home.

Period features abound throughout the property with parquet flooring, wood burning stove, high ceilings and classical picture and dado rails. The main entrance door opens to an impressive reception hall with parquet designed flooring and a stunning staircase leading off to the first floor accommodation. Off the reception hallway is the breakfast kitchen, which has traditional designed wall and base units providing more than adequate storage space with a walk-in larder/utility and ample dining space. The breakfast kitchen has been extended by the present owners to showcase the garden space with doors leading directly out on the patio area overlooking the main garden, bringing the outside space in, perfect for entertaining and family use. The sitting room is a light and well-proportioned room with wooden style flooring and a large window as well as a fireplace housing a wood burner. There is a further reception room which is most versatile to suit your requirements such as a formal dining room or a family room.

The ground floor is concluded with a useful downstairs cloakroom. The feature staircase rises to the first floor landing, off which are four good sized bedrooms, and a family bathroom which has been very recently renovated to create a relaxing and contemporary space.

The main garden really does compliment the property with a stone paved terrace accessed from the kitchen making it ideal for outdoor entertaining. Beyond is another larger patio seating area covered with a pergola. There is a large lawn with herbaceous borders and a variety of trees an ideal space for children and your family pets. A gated pathway leads to the front door of the house with a useful outbuilding, perfect for storage.

The owners have also purchased a parcel of land close to the property to provide a parking space.

Location

The property is situated in the old village of Cheddleton, which is an area full picturesque properties and within close proximity of some outstanding countryside.
