Denise White Estate Agents Comments

Introducing a beautifully appointed three-bedroom detached residence, nestled in an elevated position that offers uninterrupted natural light and serene views. This exceptional property boasts a large landscaped garden, a double garage, a summer house, and off-street parking, making it a standout find in one of the most sought-after locations in Leek, Staffordshire. Just moments away from the Golf Course and a short drive to the market town of Leek, which features boutique shops, restaurants, and bars, this home has been thoughtfully renovated to provide a spacious and modern living environment.

The layout is designed for both comfort and functionality, having been expertly extended and improved by the current owners. It features a contemporary open-plan kitchen, living, and dining area that seamlessly connects to an outdoor entertaining space. Additionally, the property includes two separate reception rooms, ensuring ample space for relaxation, along with quiet and comfortable double bedrooms, including a main bedroom with an en-suite bathroom.

Ideal for hosting gatherings, the stylish kitchen-living-dining area is enhanced by bi-fold doors that open onto the garden patio, creating a fluid indoor-outdoor experience. The adjacent dining room offers versatility and could serve as an office or consulting room for those who work from home. A conveniently located ground-floor shower room and a generously sized lounge at the front of the house complete the ground floor accommodation. The ground floor layout could also accommodate for multi generational living with one of the reception rooms adapted to a ground floor bedroom and having the ground floor shower room.

The first floor comprises three well-proportioned double bedrooms, with the main bedroom featuring a large picture window that overlooks the rear garden and includes an en-suite shower room. The two additional double bedrooms share access to a beautifully designed bathroom, complete with a heritage-style suite and a roll-top freestanding bath, as well as a separate W.C.

Ample off-road parking is available through the double garage and a double driveway, alongside thoughtfully landscaped gardens at both the front and rear of the property. The unique elevated setting allows for distinct outdoor zones that cater to both social gatherings and quiet contemplation. The large summer house adds further versatility, serving as an ideal retreat for a games room, studio, or study.

This property is perfect for professionals or families seeking a prestigious location, offering a generous garden and spacious interior that harmoniously combines a sophisticated lifestyle with the comforts of home.

Location

Situated on the outskirts of the market town of Leek in Birchall, close to Birchall Golf Club.

Leek is known as the 'Queen of the Staffordshire Moorlands', Leek is a former textile town with a long and fascinating history.

The unspoilt town centre offers a refreshing alternative to from modern shopping malls and has a wealth of independent shops, including former silk mills housing antique and reproduction pine centres, as well as traditional and contemporary furnishings.

Delicious local produce can be found in abundance at traditional butchers, bakers, greengrocers, delicatessens and cafes. Leek is also home to speciality producers of condiments, confectionery, preserves, wine, whisky, craft beers and the traditional Staffordshire oatcake.

Traditional markets abound, both indoors in the beautifully restored Victorian Butter Market and outdoors in the Market Place, offering everything from general goods, antiques and collectables to fine foods and special 'Totally Locally' Sunday markets. And when it comes to wining and dining, you can choose from a tempting selection of cafés, real ale pubs and restaurants.

Further afield, you'll find the unique, tooth-like rock formations of The Roaches, Rudyard Lake with its picturesque setting and narrow gauge railway and Tittesworth Water, a popular and accessible attraction for visitors of all ages
