Denise White Agents Comments

A unique opportunity to acquire an exceptional four bedroom home on the outskirts of the town centre. Located on a peaceful cul-de-sac, this impressive semi detached property provides off-road parking, an integral garage, and a substantial rear garden backing on to Pickwood Park with a beautiful outlook of surrounding greenery.

Internally, the property features a large entrance hall with stunning stained glass feature window and a partially Minton tiled wall. A cosy dining room benefits from a large bay window to the front allowing ample light to fill the space. A gas fire with large pine mirrored surround creates a warm ambiance and hints at the history of the home. A spacious living room boasts an open fire and French doors to the magnificent rear garden seamlessly connecting both indoors and outdoors and creating a relaxing environment throughout the seasons. The kitchen has been extended over the years creating ample space to cook and dine. A useful utility room and WC featuring William Morris wallpaper complete the ground floor accommodation.

To the first floor are three large double bedrooms and a fourth single room ideal for a child's bedroom, study or craft room. Every room boasts character and charm whether it be cast iron feature fireplaces, large bay windows, or William Morris wallpaper. Bedroom Three also boasts an ensuite ideal for guests or a family member who desires more independence. A well equipped shower room services the three remaining bedrooms.

Externally, this property benefits from wonderful outdoors space. The large rear garden is tiered and features an initial stone patio area - a perfect spot to enjoy breakfast on those warmer summer mornings. Steps lead to a gravelled level with beautiful topiary borders well stocked with perennials. Beyond is largely laid to lawn with a delightful summerhouse which could be utilised as a 'wendy house' for children, crafting space, or storage for gardening tools. To the bottom of the garden is a beautiful woodland perfect for children to play and explore.

Overall, this extraordinary property offers a rare opportunity to acquire a large family home on the outskirts of the town centre. With traditional features, plenty of storage and a one of a kind plot, this property is one not to be missed!

Location

Known as the 'Queen of the Staffordshire Moorlands', Leek is a former textile town with a long and fascinating history.

The unspoiled town centre offers a refreshing alternative to from modern shopping malls and has a wealth of independent shops, including former silk mills housing antique and reproduction pine centres, as well as traditional and contemporary furnishings.

Delicious local produce can be found in abundance at traditional butchers, bakers, greengrocers, delicatessens and cafes. Leek is also home to specialty producers of condiments, confectionery, preserves, wine, whisky, craft beers and the traditional Staffordshire oatcake.

Traditional markets abound, both indoors in the beautifully restored Victorian Butter Market and outdoors in the Market Place, offering everything from general goods, antiques and collectibles to fine foods and special 'Totally Locally' Sunday markets. And when it comes to wining and dining, you can choose from a tempting selection of cafés, real ale pubs and restaurants.

Further afield, you'll find the unique, tooth-like rock formations of The Roaches, Rudyard Lake with its picturesque setting and narrow gauge railway and Tittesworth Water, a popular and accessible attraction for visitors of all ages
