Denise White Estate Agents Comments

Situated on the outskirts of the bustling town centre, this four-bedroom townhouse presents an exciting opportunity for those looking to infuse their personal style into a property rich with character.

Upon entering the ground floor, you're welcomed by two spacious reception rooms that showcase delightful historical features, including a large bay window that floods the space with natural light, a striking cast iron fireplace that serves as a focal point, and classic picture railings that add a touch of elegance. At the rear, you'll find a well-appointed kitchen, equipped with an integrated oven and hob, offering plenty of space for culinary creativity.

Moving to the first floor, the layout features two bedrooms, alongside a bathroom. The main bedroom is particularly impressive, featuring another large bay window that enhances the room.

The second floor reveals two additional rooms: a generously sized double room with a dormer window that adds character and light, and a cosy single room complete with built-in storage.

Externally, the property boasts a good-sized enclosed yard, thoughtfully paved for low maintenance, making it an ideal spot for outdoor relaxation or entertaining.

This townhouse is perfect for those seeking a project to make their own, blending historical charm with modern living. Don't miss the chance to transform this property into your dream home!

Location

Within walking distance to the centre of Leek and close to some beautiful countryside.

Leek is known as the 'Queen of the Staffordshire Moorlands', and is a former textile town with a long and fascinating history.

The unspoilt town centre offers a refreshing alternative to from modern shopping malls and has a wealth of independent shops, including former silk mills housing antique and reproduction pine centres, as well as traditional and contemporary furnishings.

Delicious local produce can be found in abundance at traditional butchers, bakers, greengrocers, delicatessens and cafes. Leek is also home to speciality producers of condiments, confectionery, preserves, wine, whisky, craft beers and the traditional Staffordshire oatcake.

Traditional markets abound, both indoors in the beautifully restored Victorian Butter Market and outdoors in the Market Place, offering everything from general goods, antiques and collectables to fine foods and special 'Totally Locally' Sunday markets. And when it comes to wining and dining, you can choose from a tempting selection of cafés, real ale pubs and restaurants.

Further afield, you'll find the unique, tooth-like rock formations of The Roaches, Rudyard Lake with its picturesque setting and narrow gauge railway and Tittesworth Water, a popular and accessible attraction for visitors of all ages.

Local Estate Agent Wins Prestigious British Gold Award for Customer Service

Denise White Bespoke Estate Agents has been honored with the esteemed Gold Award 2024 from the British Property Awards for their exceptional customer service and extensive local marketing knowledge in Leek and its surrounding areas.

The British Property Awards, renowned for their inclusivity and comprehensive evaluation process, assess estate agents across the United Kingdom based on their customer service levels and understanding of the local market. Denise White Estate Agents demonstrated outstanding performance throughout the rigorous and independent judging period.

As part of the assessment, the British Property Awards mystery shopped 90% of estate agents nationwide, evaluating their telephone etiquette, responsiveness to emails, promptness in returning missed calls, and, crucially, their expertise in the local marketing area.

The Gold Award is a testament to the estate agents who consistently go above and beyond, delivering exceptional levels of customer service, focusing on their commitment and excellence within the local community.
