Denise White Estate Agents Comments

Situated on a desirable residential street in the popular village of Cheddleton, this beautifully maintained three-bedroom detached bungalow offers generous living space, picturesque countryside views, and a highly functional layout ideal for comfortable living and entertaining.

Internally, the bungalow boasts three well-proportioned bedrooms, with the two larger rooms enjoying lovely views of the manicured rear garden. A modern, well-appointed shower room serves the bedrooms with potential to incorporate a bath if desired, with the added benefit of a separate WC to accommodate guests.

The neutrally decorated lounge-diner offers a welcoming and spacious area for relaxation or social gatherings, seamlessly flowing into a versatile conservatory that overlooks the rear garden—perfect for entertaining year-round.

The thoughtfully designed kitchen is both spacious and practical, with ample room for meal preparation and storage. An adjoining utility room enhances the property's day-to-day convenience.

Externally, this home continues to impress. A generous flat driveway leads to a substantial garage, while side access on both flanks of the property ensures ease of movement around the home. The front garden features attractive, well-stocked borders that elevate the kerb appeal.

To the rear, a beautifully landscaped garden includes a stone patio wrapping around the conservatory, ideal for al fresco dining. A well-tended lawn is bordered by mature planting, and steps lead down to an additional patio area offering further space to relax in privacy amidst leafy surroundings.

This exceptional bungalow combines space, setting, and superb condition—making it an ideal home for families or downsizers alike.
