Denise White Estate Agents Comments

Situated on a sought-after residential street, this well-presented three-bedroom townhouse offers contemporary, light-filled living with stylish finishes throughout.

The ground floor features a bright and airy living room with French doors opening onto the rear garden—perfect for relaxing or entertaining. A modern kitchen diner spans the depth of the property, fitted with sleek Shaker-style cabinets and offering direct access to the outdoor space.

Upstairs, you'll find three well-proportioned bedrooms, including two spacious doubles overlooking the garden and tranquil woodland beyond, plus a versatile single room to the front. A well-appointed family bathroom serves all bedrooms.

Externally, the home boasts a neat lawned front garden, while the rear garden offers an ideal blend of paved patio, raised decking, and lawn, all set against a backdrop of mature woodland—creating a peaceful and private outdoor retreat.

Overall, this property is ideal for first time buyers or young families alike.

Location

Leek is known as the 'Queen of the Staffordshire Moorlands', Leek is a former textile town with a long and fascinating history.

The unspoilt town centre offers a refreshing alternative to from modern shopping malls and has a wealth of independent shops, including former silk mills housing antique and reproduction pine centres, as well as traditional and contemporary furnishings.

Delicious local produce can be found in abundance at traditional butchers, bakers, greengrocers, delicatessens and cafes. Leek is also home to speciality producers of condiments, confectionery, preserves, wine, whisky, craft beers and the traditional Staffordshire oatcake.

Traditional markets abound, both indoors in the beautifully restored Victorian Butter Market and outdoors in the Market Place, offering everything from general goods, antiques and collectables to fine foods and special 'Totally Locally' Sunday markets. And when it comes to wining and dining, you can choose from a tempting selection of cafés, real ale pubs and restaurants.

Further afield, you'll find the unique, tooth-like rock formations of The Roaches, Rudyard Lake with its picturesque setting and narrow gauge railway and Tittesworth Water, a popular and accessible attraction for visitors of all ages

The location offers excellent access to the Peak District National Park, an area of outstanding natural beauty famed for its walking, cycling and wildlife watching. Steep limestone valleys like Dovedale, with its stepping stones, and Lathkill Dale, draw visitors from around the world.

The nearest train stations to Leek are Stoke-on-Trent (12 miles), Macclesfield (13 miles) and Buxton (13 miles), providing direct services to Manchester, Sheffield and London in around 95 minutes.
