Denise White Estate Agents Comments

Albury House offers a Rare Opportunity to Own a Piece of Victorian Elegance located in a highly sought-after area close to Rudyard Lake.

Built in 1896, this imposing four-bedroom detached Victorian residence offers substantial and versatile accommodation arranged over four floors. Bursting with character and potential, the property is ideally suited for those looking to create their perfect family home.

To the ground floor, you'll find a traditional Entrance Hall welcomes you to the property, featuring an original Minton Tiled Floor. A sizeable lounge spans the depth of the property, with a large Bay window to the front aspect allowing natural light to flood the room, and French doors lead to a roof garden at the rear of the property. Alongside the Lounge you will find a useful Study and a Bay Fronted dining room which opens in to a well-proportioned kitchen. To the side of the property is a charming conservatory, offering flexible living and entertaining spaces. The first floor hosts three generous double bedrooms, a single bedroom, and a family shower room, while the second floor reveals a large attic room, offering excellent potential for conversion into a luxurious master suite—subject to the necessary alterations.

The lower ground floor comprises three sizable cellar rooms, one currently utilised as a utility room, which in turn provides access to a carport, two workshops, a double garage, and an additional internal single garage—perfect for hobbyists, storage, or vehicle enthusiasts.

Outside, the mature front garden is well established and features a raised fishpond, adding to the charm of this unique property. To the rear, a sizable roof garden provides a private and elevated outdoor retreat.

In need of some modernisation, this distinctive home offers the rare opportunity to blend period charm with modern living in an enviable location.
