Denise White Estate Agents Comments

Set in a desirable residential area on St Edwards Road in the ever-popular village of Cheddleton, this well-presented three-bedroom semi-detached home offers spacious, immaculately maintained accommodation ideal for modern family living.

To the ground floor, an entrance porch provides a practical welcome to the home, featuring a large utility cupboard with plumbing for a washing machine, space for a tumble dryer, and ample shoe storage. A door leads through to the entrance hall, from which stairs rise to the first floor and doors open to both the kitchen and lounge. The kitchen, positioned to the front aspect, is fitted with a range of units incorporating an integrated oven and hob, while the spacious lounge spans the rear of the property and opens through French doors to the conservatory – a delightful space to relax and enjoy lovely views over the garden and countryside in the distance.

To the first floor, there are two generous double bedrooms and a good-sized single bedroom, together with a modern family bathroom.

Externally, the property enjoys excellent parking options with two driveways – one to the front providing parking for two vehicles, and a second just around the corner, accessed from Dalehouse Road, also offering space for two cars and leading to a detached single garage. The rear garden is private and enclosed, featuring paved patio seating areas, a good-sized lawn, and a timber summer house. Gated access at the end of the garden leads along a short pathway to a timber shed, which connects internally to the garage – providing both practicality and convenience.

Ideally positioned within easy reach of local shops, amenities, and St Edwards First School, and just a stone's throw from the beautiful Staffordshire Moorlands countryside, this lovely home perfectly blends comfort, practicality, and scenic living.
