A Grade II listed former Lock Keepers Cottage, believed to date back to the 18th Century. Positioned in an idyllic village location on the banks of the Caldon Canal.

Denise White Estate Agents Comments

"Lock House"; a characterful 18th Century Grade II Listed Cottage located in a highly sought after location in the Village of Stockton Brook. Formerly a lock keepers cottage, the property sits on the banks of the Caldon Canal with direct access to the tow path and is bursting at the seams with historical charm!

An Entrance Porch welcomes you to the property and leads on through to a spacious Living Kitchen; fully fitted with a range of Kitchen units, providing ample space for both dining and lounging, and featuring an exposed brick fireplace housing a multi-fuel stove. From the Kitchen area a door leads to the Rear Porch which provides external access to the rear of the property and also leads to a useful Utility Room/WC. From the Lounge area doors lead to a separate Sitting Room and to the Inner Hallway, from which stairs climb to the First Floor and a door leads you to the Study. To the First Floor, there are Three Double Bedrooms and a wonderful Family Bathroom featuring a freestanding double ended bath and spacious shower cubicle.

Externally the property sits in an excellent sized plot surrounded by mature private gardens with a range of outbuildings including a greenhouse, brick built store and two timber sheds.

Conveniently located within easy reach of local shops, pubs and restaurants, with Greenway Hall Golf Club on the doorstep and within the catchment area for the popular Endon Schools. Within a short drive you can access the Market Town of Leek and there are excellent road links to Stoke on Trent City Centre.

This property would appeal to a broad range of buyers and a viewing is essential to appreciate all it has to offer in terms of the location, accommodation and plot.
