Guide Price £299,950

Postbridge, Yelverton

Situated in the stunning Dartmoor National Park is this charming and characterful, three bedroom, traditional granite Dartmoor cottage equipped with fantastic outdoor space, spacious living accommodation and approx. 1.3 acres of land. Please note, it is not possible to obtain a mortgage on a property with a Duchy of Cornwall leasehold.

The property offers a secluded and private lifestyle, located down a shared lane there is no through traffic. Within its 1.3 acre (approx) plot, there are two outbuildings of multi purpose use; equipped with electricity and one of which is a granite barn. Livestock fencing is also in place around the entirety of the property's perimeter making it completely safe for animals.

Internally the property boasts a wealth of character and charm. Slate floors can be found in both the snug and third reception room. A farmhouse-style kitchen with log burner and a oil-fired Heritage range help create the perfect cosy cottage atmosphere especially on a cold winter's evening. Found under the stairs is a fully exposed, disused well pump presenting a real piece of history. The incredible features of the property really do offer its sense of charm and being set in the natural beauty of Dartmoor the property really offers a fantastic family home.

The driveway offers space for up to four vehicles and benefits from two large outbuildings. The paddocks of the property are found immediately behind the driveway. The formal gardens are to the front, side and rear of the property and offer pathways throughout mature shrubs, trees and flowers. A large chicken coop and run can also be found in the gardens. There are many areas to sit and soak in the sun, including a large wooden deck and two areas created with paving stones. In its entirety this property really is a safe haven for those who are garden enthusiasts or who have animals.
