Rushford, Lamerton

Located on the edge of the village, backing onto open farmland is this semi-detached Cottage with cosy woodburning stove in a generous lounge, kitchen/diner and three bedrooms, together with gardens, parking and useful timber store.

Having been well maintained by the current vendors, the cottage benefits oil fired central heating and double glazing.

You can enter this cosy cottage either from the front entrance porch, or alternatively via the porch/utility, or the patio doors from the kitchen. From the front porch is the generous lounge with woodburning stove leading to the inner hallway, which could provide space for a desk if required, also with large downstairs cupboard. From here, a step leads up to the kitchen/diner. This room provides ample space for dining, or as the current vendors enjoy, as a place to sit and relax. The kitchen area is well fitted with a range of modern units, with wood effect worktops and incorporating a 1.5 bowl composite sink, together with space for dishwasher, fridge freezer and range cooker. An electric range cooker is available by separate negotiation. The glazed porch/utility houses the oil fired boiler and space for a washing machine and tumble dryer.

From the inner hallway, a dog leg stairs lead to the first floor landing with two good sized linen storage cupboards. Three bedrooms all enjoy superb rural views and the bathroom comprises a bath with electric shower over, WC and basin.

Outside, the drive is shared with one neighbour and both cottages enjoy a parking space each. Steps lead to the courtyard being a sheltered private spot for dining al fresco with a deep recessed bench seat. The gardens extend to the side and rear, being laid to lawn with further garden beyond the useful timber store. Backing onto open farmland and with many established shrubs and small trees, being a haven for many varieties of wild birds.
