Occupying an enviable and desirable location, this detached bungalow residence has it all. Close to amenities, recreational facilities and stunning walks on the moors, not to mention the breathtaking moorland views.

Offering three reception rooms, one which could be utilised as a 3rd bedroom, two double bedrooms, a garden room and immaculately presented throughout, the bungalow sits in its own level plot with private drive, extending to approximately 1/3rd of an acre. The vendors have carefully and lovingly maintained this property to a particularly high standard, with many features including Oak doors, vintage style radiators, woodburner, slate and engineered oak flooring.

A welcoming entrance hall leads to all rooms with a generous living room, separate dining room and sun room enjoying wonderful views over landscaped gardens, countryside and the moors. A modern, comprehensively fitted kitchen boasts wall and base units under quartz worktops, integrated fridge freezer and undermount sink. Aga range cooker with gas hob. A door leads to outside. There are two double bedrooms, one with built-in wardrobes and complemented by a well fitted bathroom, with mains fed shower over the bath.

The landscaped gardens are a particular delight, being well stocked with an abundance of all year colour. The long private drive runs along the front gardens, with many fruit trees, superb Magnolia tree, Wisteria, Clematis and the Garden Room with a patio, where you can relax and enjoy the peaceful countryside sounds. The drive then leads to the entrance gates into the main rear drive, with detached garage and a workshop with store, power connected. The rear gardens are lawned with a productive vegetable plot, composting area and many more flowering shrub beds and borders. Rear patio by the kitchen is just one of the many areas to sit outside. Adjoining open farmland with a direct view of the moor.
