Okehampton

We are delighted to be able to offer for a sale a rare opportunity to own a piece of Okehampton's history, in the form of a beautifully transformed one-bedroom detached home, which was originally one of four toll houses built in 1760 by the Okehampton Turnpike Trust. Designed to raise funds for the repair of local roads, this charming property offers a delightful blend of historical character and modern comfort. The home retains many original features in a cosy, yet spacious, layout perfect for contemporary living, while outside, the property benefits from a well-maintained garden and off-road parking.

Located just a short walk from Okehampton's shops, cafes, and amenities, this picturesque home offers both tranquillity and convenience.
