Richmond Terrace

Buckland Monachorum, Yelverton

Offering light, airy and spacious accommodation with flexible living is this period village house, three bedrooms, two reception rooms, loft room, extensive rear gardens with studio garden room, store, barbecue and entertaining patio area, with level lawns and further stone built store.

As you enter this family home, there is a generous sitting room, with woodburning stove and bay window to the front, opening into the dining room, with glazed recesses and deep understairs storage cupboard. Ample room for dining or space for children to play. A small lobby/utility space leads to the well appointed ground floor bathroom boasts underfloor heating and a four piece suite with shower cubicle, mains fed shower, bath, low level WC, basin and chrome heated towel rail. The kitchen is fitted with a range of wall and base units, 1.5 bowl sink, built in oven and hob, with full height shelving to one wall and recess for fridge/freezer. A stable door leads to outside.

On the first floor are three bedrooms, two doubles, one with recessed wardrobes and storage, the single bedroom houses the wall mounted combination boiler. From the landing, loft access is given to a loft room, being a good size, with velux window.

Small front garden and at the end of the terrace access can be gained to the rear former garage which has been divided to create a small workshop and studio/garden room with patio and barbecue area, ideal for entertaining. From here a long level lawn leads to a further stone built store.

Located within walking distance of a popular primary school and local pub.
