The Property:

51 Elmwood Road is a wonderful family home that is very well-presented throughout. The current owners have cleverly and thoughtfully converted the garage into a large kitchen/diner which really makes this the heart of the home. The property comprises;

Downstairs:

Enter the property through a UPVC door into a small hallway with a large storage cupboard, ideal for hiding away coats and shoes. You then walk straight into the kitchen/diner which is a beautiful, bright and spacious room that has been finished to a high standard. With Karndean flooring throughout the downstairs of the property, this is a house ready for children and pets!

The kitchen has plenty of wall and floor grey units with a wooden worksurface above and blue tile splashback adding a touch of colour. There is an integrated oven and pizza oven as well as electric hob with extractor over and an integrated dishwasher. There is room for a large fridge freezer and also space for a kitchen table and chairs.

Next door to the kitchen is a utility area with room for washing machine and dryer and a handy downstairs WC with basin.

From the kitchen and through an archway leads you to the lounge which benefits from wood effect Karndean flooring and has built in storage under the inset TV wall. Double patio doors and double windows make this a lovely warm and bright room and the doors lead onto the garden making watching the children in the garden easy.

Upstairs:

Up the stairs is a big landing with loft access and a large storage airing cupboard.

Bedroom 1 is a good-sized double room that comes complete with a huge walk in wardrobe that has automatic lighting when the door opens and is a fantastic and useful addition to the bedroom.

Bedroom 2 is another large double bedroom to the rear of the property overlooking the gardens and trees beyond.

The family bathroom is modern and clean with white suite consisting of bath with electric shower over, WC and basin. There is an obscured glass window in here to bring in natural light whilst maintaining privacy.
