

ROYAL VIEW

AT LEITH

Welcome to Royal View

At Royal View, Living by Robertson is bringing superior quality, spacious and modern apartments to the buzzing port district of Leith, recently named Best Place to Live in Scotland, by The Times.

Our stunning collection of 1, 2 & 3 bedroom apartments has been designed for discerning young homeowners with lift access and Juliet balconies or French doors leading to private gardens. Select apartments have allocated parking while others boast views across to Edinburgh Castle and the Pentland hills beyond.

Each generously sized apartment is open plan with flexible spaces for entertaining, relaxing or home working. Extra storage is incorporated into all our designs without compromising on internal living space with certain apartment styles featuring walk-in wardrobes, double storage cupboards and sought-after utility rooms.

We know a new home is so much more than a place to live. We make sure you have the perfect base to make it all happen; that's why we hold the title of Scottish Housebuilder of the Year.

Immerse in the vibrant local culture

Leith stands proudly next to its international city neighbour, with its own unique culture and character.

Recently named one of the Coolest Neighbourhoods in Europe by Time Out Magazine, the historic port district of Leith with its distinctive waterside buildings is now home to quirky and boutique shops, independent bars, a gin distillery as well as festivals and the multi-award-winning tourist attraction, The Royal Yacht Britannia.

Leith is a foodie destination with its cool coffee shops, two Michelin starred restaurants The Kitchen and Restaurant Martin Wishart, as well as Scotland's oldest delicatessen Valvona and Crolla. Every Saturday, you can stroll around the food market, which appears each week on the docks and explore Leith's very own Vegan Quarter. Next door to Leith, the district of Newhaven is home to some of the finest seafood restaurants in Scotland, including Loch Fyne Seafood & Grill.

Ocean Terminal Shopping Centre, one of Europe's largest shopping and leisure centres, is around a 10-minute walk. Ocean Terminal boasts many high-street stores from French Connection to H&M and Superdry and has a range of well-known restaurants and coffee shops, a Marks & Spencer Simply Food store, gym and multi-screen cinema. Also nearby at the top of Leith Walk, the multi-million pound new St James Quarter is now open. Many brands are making their debut in Scotland at this much anticipated new retail and lifestyle district, including The Alchemist, & Other Stories and Pull&Bear. For those who want to elevate their cinema experience, there will be an Everyman Cinema where you can have a glass of wine delivered to your seat, and for a 360 view of the skyline, you can head to the rooftop terrace of Scotland's first W hotel.

Explore the great outdoors

The popular Leith Links, originally designed as a golf course, is perfect for a leisurely stroll or picnic amongst its tree-lined avenues and open green space. Each year it is the venue for two of Leith's famous festivals, the annual Edinburgh Mela Festival and Leith Festival. There is also an upgraded cycle path along the Leith Links route leading you to Portobello Promenade.

By car, Portobello Beach is just 3 miles away as is one of the largest urban parks in Scotland. Inverleith Park has a boating pond, rose garden and plenty of outdoor exercise options, including a running track, fields for rugby and cricket and tennis courts.

For keen walkers, joggers and cyclists, the Water of Leith Walkway feels a world away from city life with a route that winds next to the river for 12-miles which is surrounded by trees and greenery. Cyclists can also access the nearby Hawthornvale Path, which connects to the off-road active travel network.

At Living by Robertson, we understand looking after your bike is a serious business. At Royal View, we have well-lit on-site cycle storage with plenty of spaces for each apartment to keep your bikes secure and easily accessible.

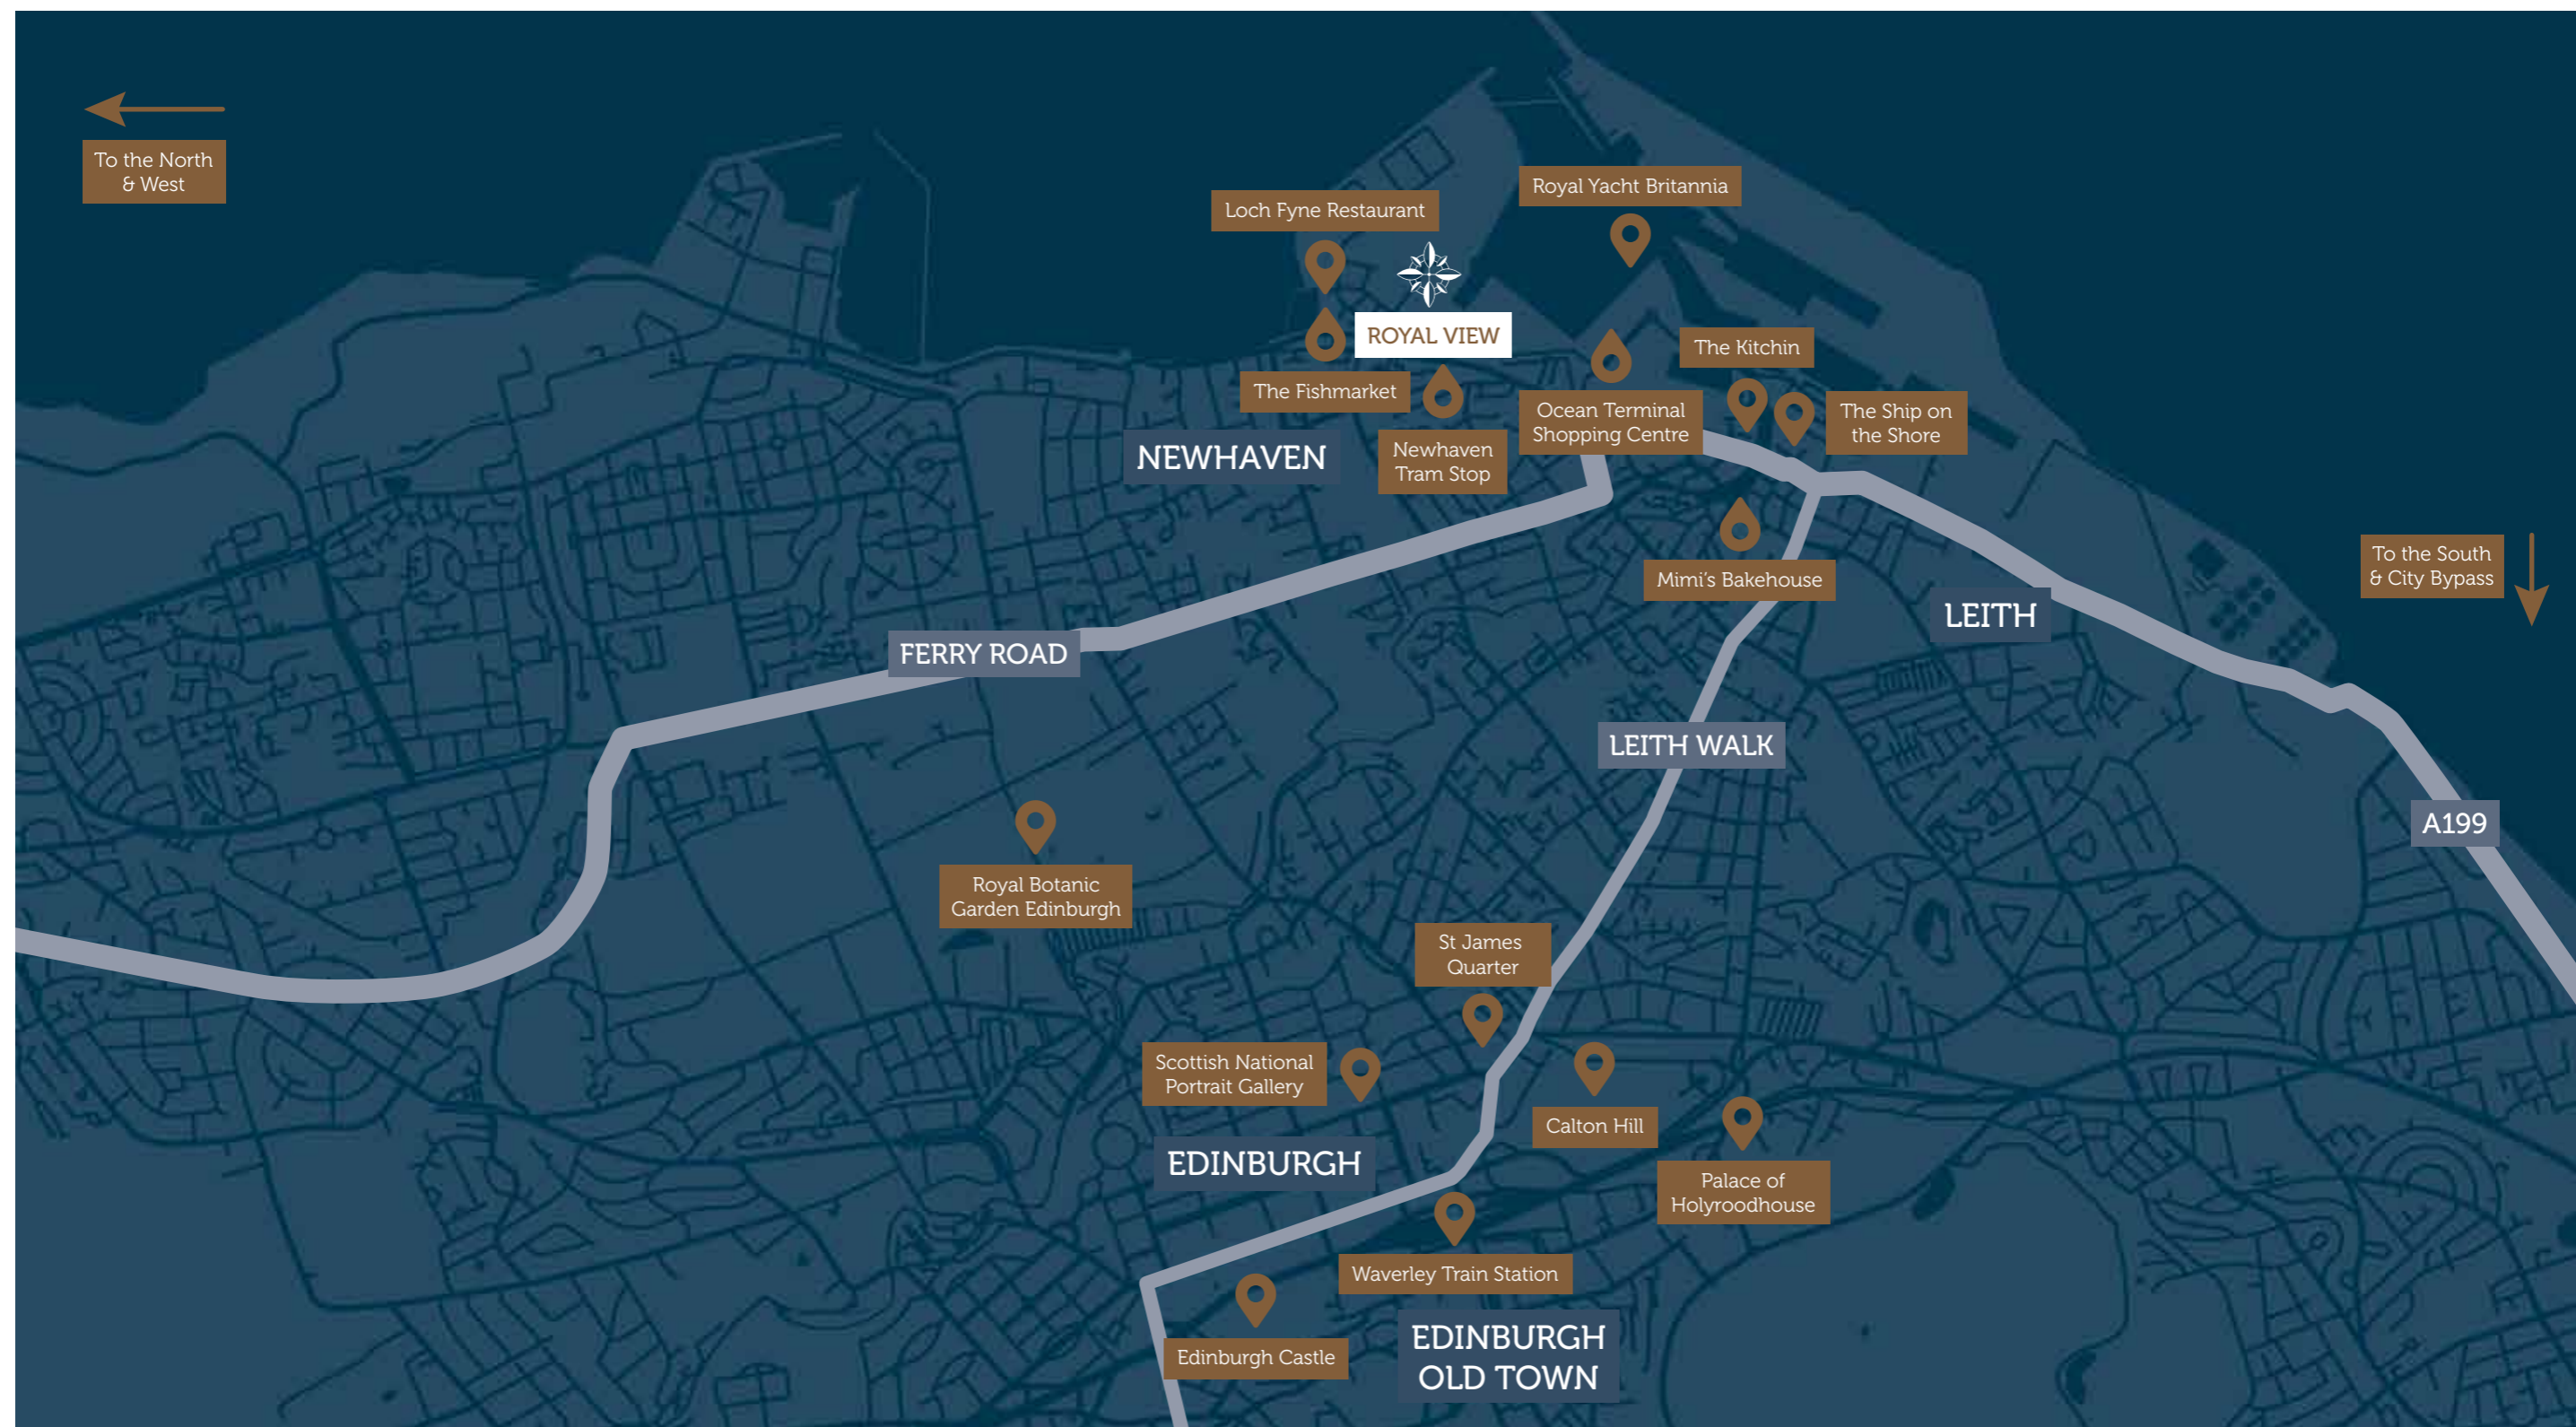

Connect to Edinburgh and beyond

Leith has excellent transport links with an easy commute by car or bus to Edinburgh city centre. The City Bypass is only around 8 miles drive and connects you to a network of major roads and motorways, giving you access to the rest of Scotland.

Edinburgh International Airport, the UK's 6th busiest airport, is less than 10 miles away and flies to more than 150 destinations worldwide.

Regular bus routes connect you to the city centre and established tram and rail transport. Very soon, the Capital's extended tram network will stop directly outside Royal View, giving you further options for connecting with Leith, Edinburgh City Centre and Edinburgh Airport, all from your doorstep.
