LILAC COTTAGE EAST END
SWERFORD | OX7 4BG

A two-bedroom cottage situated in the desirable village of Swerford, surrounded by countryside and characterful ironstone-built cottages. The location offers an idyllic perspective on country life.

Benefiting from a two-storey extension, the property comprises a welcoming entrance porch and a generous living room with wood-burning stove. The fitted kitchen provides dining space along with the added benefit of bi-folding doors opening onto the landscaped garden.

The first floor features the principal bedroom with views over the rear garden and village landscape, a generous guest bedroom, and the main bathroom.

Outside, the rear garden is landscaped and offers a blend of lawn, paved areas, and mature borders, with the additional benefit of rear access.

Swerford is a picturesque village located in the Cotswolds, approximately three miles east of Chipping Norton in Oxfordshire. This charming rural settlement is characterised by traditional ironstone cottages and farmhouses that reflect the quintessential Cotswold architectural style.
