3 Geldart Road

Description

This five-bedroom Victorian house is full of character and charm and is situated a short walk from Peckham Rye and Queens Road Overground stations providing fantastic links to London Bridge in 8 minutes with its incredible access to central London. Additionally, excellent local bus links access Elephant and Castle Underground station within 15 minutes and onward to the West End. The resurgent and trendy Peckham with its plethora of Independent Bars (the Bussey building and Franks bar are close by) and restaurants are a short stroll and provide something for everybody. Local shops sell food and wares from a diverse range of cultures and far flung corners of the world, the larger supermarkets of Sainsburys, Tesco's and Morrisons all close by for the larger shop.

Each bedroom is furnished with bed, wardrobe and chest of drawers, and work desk providing an ideal study area and bedroom retreat. The kitchen/living area is ideal socialising space and the kitchen is fully integrated with cupboard space a plenty.

The kitchen leads onto a private garden, a mixture of patio and lawn and is equally suited to relaxing or entertaining.
