Description

This stylishly re-furbished five double bedroom Victorian terraced house of over 2000 square feet is presented with an array of period features with stunning open plan living/dining and kitchen space.

The master bedroom suite is exceptional and is complimented by outstanding views of the London skyline and relaxing views of greenery. The quality of flooring is consistent throughout the property and the south facing garden is equally ideal for entertaining or relaxing.

There is an abundance of built in storage and shelving throughout this house.

Lyndhurst Grove is ideally situated between Camberwell and Peckham Rye. Bellenden Road, with its plethora of independent shops, cafes, bars and restaurants is a short walk away.

Transport links are aplenty, with both Denmark Hill and Peckham Rye overground stations a 10 minute stroll. Permit parking is available on-street.

On entry into the light and spacious hallway you are immediately greeted by contemporary decor, high ceilings and original features. To the left is the huge through reception space that opens up into the kitchen/dining area. If more privacy is required, then the reception room can be separated from the open plan kitchen/dining space. The bespoke designed kitchen is a mixture of extensive counter and cupboard
