Property Description

Access to the property is through the front door, which is located on the side, leading into an inviting entrance porch. From the porch, a spacious hallway opens up, featuring doors that lead into the living areas. At the front of the property, you will find a generously sized sitting room with a front-facing window. Adjacent to it is a well-proportioned second bedroom, complete with fitted wardrobe storage and a front-facing window. The larger master bedroom is situated at the rear, also equipped with fitted wardrobe storage and offering a view of the garden. In the middle of the property, there is a shower room featuring a walk-in accessible shower, sink, W.C., and a side-facing window. Finally, the kitchen, located at the rear, boasts dual aspect windows and an external door that leads to the side of the property. It offers numerous wall and base units with complementary work surfaces, ample space for free-standing appliances, and a decent-sized dining area.

The exterior of the property features a beautifully maintained front lawn and metal gates that grant access to the driveway, which runs alongside the property to a detached single garage. Next to the garage, there is open access to the low-maintenance rear garden, which includes both a lawn and a patio area adorned with decorative shrubs and borders.

This leasehold property is on a 950 year lease from 1972 and an annual ground rent payment is required, due to the nature of the sale the current owners are not certain on this amount, we are lead to believe it is £15. The property is of traditional construction, boasts full double glazing throughout, is warmed by gas central heating and is connected to all mains services.
