BEAUTIFULLY RENOVATED EDWARDIAN FAMILY HOME...

Nestled just moments from West Bridgford Park and The Avenue, this impressive five double bedroom Edwardian residence seamlessly blends timeless character with contemporary luxury. A true reflection of the owner's vision and meticulous attention to detail, this family home radiates refined elegance and timeless sophistication—seamlessly blending original and restored period features with a striking contemporary design, both inside and out. Beyond the storm porch, the spacious inner hallway sets the tone for the home's interior. To the front, the lounge boasts a multi-fuel burning stove, perfect for cozy evenings, while a dedicated cinema room offers an immersive entertainment experience. A stylish W/C completes the front of the ground floor. To the rear, a breathtaking extension reveals a light-filled, open-plan kitchen-diner—undeniably the heart of the home. This space is defined by a sleek granite breakfast island, an array of premium integrated appliances, designer flooring with underfloor heating, and aluminium bi-folding doors that effortlessly open out onto a sun-drenched rear deck. The first floor hosts a generously proportioned main bedroom alongside two additional spacious double bedrooms, all served by a beautifully appointed family bathroom with high-end finishes. The second floor reveals a converted loft, thoughtfully designed to include two further double bedrooms and a chic, contemporary shower room—ideal for guests or growing families. Outside, the home continues to impress. To the front, there is convenient off-road parking, while the rear garden is a true outdoor sanctuary. South-facing and professionally landscaped, it features yellow Balau decking, a designated space for a sunken hot tub, raised decked planters with a vibrant mix of plants and shrubs, potted palm trees, and a low-maintenance artificial lawn—perfect for entertaining or relaxing on warm summer days.
