Amenities and Services

Battersea Place is a Luxury Retirement Community offering private, independent apartment living with the availability of onsite care should you require it – either now or in the future. Built with the over 65s in mind and for those who appreciate attention to detail.

The development has been designed to extend your living space, beyond that of your apartment, to include full use of the onsite facilities such as a swimming pool and spa, gym, billiards room, private cinema, guest apartment, library, courtyard garden, hobbies room, lounge, à la carte restaurant, bar and café.

Other onsite services include domiciliary and nursing care, self-drive care hire and chauffeur service, housekeeping and laundry service, beauty treatment and a hair salon. Packages can be tailored to personal requirements.

Lifestyle and wellbeing are at the heart of our offering and award-winning care is available should you need it. An enriching environment for you and peace of mind for your family.

APPROVED
OPERATOR

We are both a founding and leading member of the industry association, ARCO (Associated Retirement Community Operators), which promotes retirement communities for older people. We are an Approved Operator under the ARCO Consumer Code. We aim to meet and exceed their standards of service and compliance and are constantly striving to drive the retirement community industry to higher levels of quality and probity.

Directions

Situated on Albert Bridge Road, overlooking Battersea Park, Battersea Place is a stone's throw from Chelsea and the King's Road and all that London has to offer.

With Battersea Parks 200 acres of parkland, gardens, lakes and point of interest on your doorstep, Battersea Place benefits from being in vibrant London with easy access to open spaces to enjoy. Nearby bus and rail connections to central London and beyond.
