SETTING THE SCENE

The property can be found away up a slight embankment on this exclusive road with a large driveway emerging to the front and side of the property whilst a double detached brick garage comes to the right of the home next to iron gates providing access into the rear garden.

THE GRAND TOUR

Once inside you are first met with a generously sized entrance lobby complete with wood Karndene flooring throughout the hallway and some of the living spaces and additional storage cupboards, all granting access to each living space within the property.

Initially turning to the left from the entrance and heading towards the end of the hallway, you will find yourself in the dual aspect sitting room which is 21ft in length with large sliding doors directly into the rear garden allowing natural light to flood the room. A large carpeted floor space allows for a choice of soft furnishings. Halfway down the hallway is the smaller of the four bedrooms with the same Karndene flooring fitted underfoot. This room currently functions as a home office or study, however would make the ideal larger single or smaller double bedroom. At the top of the hallway is a generously sized double room with fitted wardrobes from wall to wall with front facing double glazed window and radiator below and a useful hand wash basin. Directly ahead of the front door is the separate dining room with the same flooring running underfoot and another sliding door into the rear garden allowing the property to be opened up brilliantly during the summer months whilst giving space for a formal dining suite with the ability to be opened into the kitchen if a more open plan is desired. Sitting adjacent to the kitchen is the three piece family bathroom suite with tiled flooring and walls. This room benefits from a power shower head mounted over the bath with glass screen and frosted window to the front of the home. The kitchen itself has recently been refitted by the current owner offering a range of wall and base mounted storage units set around square edge, wood effect work surfaces that give way to an induction hob with extraction above, built in eye level oven with space for a microwave above. Walking through the glass panelled wooden door the utility room with ample space and plumbing for additional appliances including a washing machine and tumble dryer with space for a tall American style fridge/freezer, access door to the rear garden and into the two piece WC with wood effect flooring and frosted glass window to the side of the home. Another bedroom can be found further down the hallway with the same wood flooring laid underfoot with a front facing aspect. The main bedroom currently sits right at the very edge of the hallway, a generously sized double room with large carpeted floor space ideal for a wide range of storage solutions benefiting from a hand wash basin and shower.
