SETTING THE SCENE

The property is found to your right as you head down this quiet cul-de-sac formed of bungalows. Set back from the road, with privacy giving hedges to the front and a concrete driveway leading to the garage and front door.

THE GRAND TOUR

Internally you will find yourself starting in the central hallway which grants access into all parts of the property whilst giving additional storage too. To your left is the brilliantly spacious, bay fronted sitting room with generous floor space for soft furnishings and gas fired radiators. Heading through this room you will find the sun room, with its glass roof and half glass - half brick walls this space has a radiator and grants access into the rear garden also, the ideal spot for relaxing in the evenings. Adjacent to the front door is the potential third bedroom, currently serving as a dining room with a rear facing aspect and carpeted flooring. Sitting next to this room are the two double bedrooms, both with a rear facing aspect, carpeted flooring and radiator. The larger of the two does benefit from substantial built in storage currently as well as an en-suite shower room complete with corner shower unit. Next door to this is the family bathroom which offers a three piece suite complete with bath and wall mounted shower head. Into the kitchen, this versatile space offers an array of wall and base mounted storage, potential dining area for a table, breakfast bar and integrated double ovens and electric hob with extraction above with plumbing found under the counter tops for a washing machine. Finally, as you exit the kitchen door you will find yourself in the garage which has a raised platform creating an ideal space for chest freezer, tumble dryer or additional storage.
