To your right the dining room leads off, arranged in an L-shape open plan style with the kitchen, whilst being flooded with natural light thanks to the four windows, including the two in the front and side corner. Wood flooring runs underfoot, with a feature exposed brick fireplace creating a focal point. Ample cupboard storage runs the width of the property, encompassing a ceramic sink, gas hob and eye level electric oven and grill. The dishwasher is integrated and space is provided both for a fridge freezer and dining table. A useful pantry cupboard can be found under the stairs. The family room leads off with wood flooring continuing underfoot, and a feature focal fireplace and cast iron wood burner. Double doors allow the natural light to travel through the rooms, whilst this family sized sitting room includes a velux window over head and French doors to the garden.
