Providing fantastic access to Norwich, Stoke Holy Cross is a sought after village which sits south of the City. Good access to the A47 and A11 can also be found, making this a perfect location for those needing to commute or to travel around Norfolk easily. The village has a primary school, playing field, village hall and two restaurants/public house and a regular bus service. A further range of everyday amenities can be found in the nearby larger villages of Poringland and Framingham Earl.

SETTING THE SCENE

Fronting a sweeping corner plot, lawned gardens can be found to the front and side of the property with a range of mature planting, shrubbery and trees. A hard standing footpath leads to the main entrance door with the tandem driveway adjacent, which in turn leads to the attached single garage. The property enjoys a tree lined frontage with huge potential to enclose more of the garden if required (stp).

THE GRAND TOUR

Heading inside, the uPVC double glazed entrance door takes you into the hall entrance with wood block flooring, built-in storage and loft access hatch. The doors lead off to the bedroom and living accommodation, stating to your right hand side where the dual aspect sitting room can be found. Centred on a feature fireplace and uPVC double glazed windows to front and side overlooking the gardens, this light and bright room is perfect to enjoy the garden. The kitchen sits at the rear of the property with a range of wall and base level units, space for electric cooker and general white goods, with a built-in pantry cupboard and door leading outside. A useful dining hall offers an array of uses including as a snug or study if required, whilst providing access to the rear bedrooms and W.C. The smaller the bedrooms is a comfortable single or potential study, with the original main bedroom presently used as a dining room offering views over the front garden. The final two bedrooms enjoy views to front and rear with a useful W.C sitting in between with a two piece suite and tile splash-backs. Completing the property is the family bathroom, comprising a three piece suite including a mixer shower tap and tiled splash backs.
